

Dear Community Friend,

It is that time of year again where you can make a difference in the lives those less fortunate, while advertising your business in front of 250+ people. The Community Service Council of West Pasco hosts the 8th annual Bachelor, Baskets and Services Auction on July 23, 2010 at 6pm at Spartan Manor in New Port Richey. The Community Service Council is a West Pasco-based nonprofit organization. Several local charities and members of the community benefit from this signature fundraiser, including the Pace Center for Girls, Operation Shoebox, high school seniors through scholarships and home delivered meals to the less fortunate on Thanksgiving Day.

The Community Service Council's eighth annual Bachelor, Baskets and Services Auction promises to be a fabulous evening for all who attend. Area bachelors will hit the stage to be auctioned off, each donating unique dates to attract bidders. The bachelors are of various ages, occupations and interests who offer a variety of dates. Last year's date packages included dinner at Charley's Steakhouse in Tampa followed by laughs at the Improv in Ybor City. Also a double date was offered, where two lucky women were whisked away by limo to a 38-foot yacht for a sunset cruise, dinner at Island Way Grille on Clearwater Beach, and ended with dancing the night away.

In addition to the bachelors, there will be service-oriented items up for auction such as handyman services, a bathroom makeover, a total skin transformation package valued at $1,250 from Ramos Weight Loss and Aesthetic Specialists or a five-course meal prepared by Chef Victor of Zen Forrest at his restaurant or your home. For the sports-minded individual, you may bid on a four-hour fishing excursion for up to four people, personal training sessions and much more. The master of ceremonies for the evening will be Glenn Hanff, and DJ Austin will keep the crowd entertained throughout the evening's festivities.

Attendees will enjoy delicious hors d'oeuvres and delectable chocolate fountains with a variety of dipping options, creating a sumptuous desert. Tickets for all of this fun are only $25 in advance or $30 at the door. Visit communityservicecouncil.org to view sponsors and photos of bachelors and descriptions of packages from the 2009 event.

We would like to offer your company the opportunity to be a sponsor at this special event! Enclosed you will find our sponsorship levels which will allow your organization to be listed on all promotional materials and the CSC website as well as recognized by our emcee the night of the event. Most of the sponsorships include reserved seating at the event. We also welcome donations of auction items, services and of course eligible bachelors!
